Biographical / Historical

The beginnings of Park Street Church date to 1804 when a "Religious Improvement Society" began holding weekly lectures and prayer meetings in Boston. After meeting for 6 years, the society formed the Park Street Church in February 1809 with 26 charter members. Less than a year later, in January 1810, the church dedicated its newly constructed meetinghouse on the corner of Park and Tremont Streets. A plaque on the building's façade states that the church has been Trinitarian, Evangelical, and Congregational since its inception.

Park Street Church quickly became the site of significant historical events including the founding of the Handel and Haydn Society in 1815, the American Temperance Society in 1826, the Animal Rescue League in 1889, and the NAACP in 1910. It also served to host William Lloyd Garrison's first anti-slavery speech in 1829, the first public performance of the hymn "America" in 1831, and Charles Sumner's famous address, "The War System of Nations", in 1849.

In the late 1800s, Park Street's membership declined sharply, and the resultant monetary loss led to a reconstruction of the church building: the meetinghouse was raised to the second floor so that the basement and front of the church could be rented to commercial stores. Financial distress continued and the Park Street property was nearly sold to the Boston Herald in the early 1900s. Membership began to recover during the following decades, and in the mid-1940s, the stores were dismantled and the basement was returned to religious uses. In 1954 the Church purchased the adjoining property at No. 1 Park Street. The church continued to expand in 1993 when it acquired No. 2 and No. 3 Park Street.

Conditions Governing Access

Access to some of the physical items is restricted. When microfilm surrogates exist, they are to be used instead of originals. Exceptions may be granted in cases of extenuating circumstance, at the discretion of the Librarian.

Physical Characteristics and Technical Requirements

Microfilm reels require the use of a microfilm reader.

Scope and Contents

This series includes member directories and registers; confessions of faith; baptism, marriage, and death records; examining committee minutes; and records of admissions and dismissals. The bound volumes will frequently have lists of members, baptisms, deacons, but some of the lists are more complete than others.

In Box 4, A.Z. Conrad's pastor's book lists marriages, and includes details about the bride and groom, including name, race, residence, age, occupation, number of marriages, birth city, parents' names, maiden name, place and date of marriage. There are also a few pages in that book dedicated to detailed information about deaths, but there are several years missing in that run. The second book that runs from 1921-1949 continues to have details about marriages, but is more basic for deaths.

Some committee records, like Examining and Conference, have been divided into two separate boxes.

Church Records, 1804-1974

Physical Description: 37 Items (33 folders, 4 reels)

Conditions Governing Access:

Conditions Governing Access

Access to some of the physical items is restricted. When microfilm surrogates exist, they are to be used instead of originals. Exceptions may be granted in cases of extenuating circumstance, at the discretion of the Librarian.

Scope and Contents

This series includes minutes from the Society for Religious Improvement Society (the precursor to Park Street Church) and the church clerk, annual meetings, deacons, and cabinet.

Church Clerk Minutes, Annual Meeting Minutes and Reports, 1952-1966 were originally in 3 binders and unbound for preservation reasons. The third book was labeled Clerk's records, 1957-1966, although there is representation from 1957-1961 in previous books, but is overall more "big picture" and does not have individual reports. Original order was maintained.

Physical Characteristics and Technical Requirements

Microfilm reels require the use of a microfilm reader.
