Description

Historical Note: The First Congregational Church of East Chicago was gathered in 1889 in the northwest corner of Indiana. Its neoclassical building was erected in 1913 and designed by East Chicago architect Carl D. Norris. In the early 20th century, East Chicago was home to many different ethnic groups as well as home to Marktown, a planned worker community, established by Clayton Mark. East Chicago is in Lake County, on the banks of Lake Michigan, and in close proximity to downtown Chicago. The Congregational church became a UCC Church after 1957 and ultimately closed in 1985.

Scope of Collection: This collection includes church records, auxiliary group records, scrapbooks, and photographs from the First Congregational Church of East Chicago, Indiana.
