FINDING AID FOR THE LISLE COLLECTION

The Lisle Collection is a group of miscellaneous church records of the state/conference, county/borough, and local church level for the state of New York. These records were housed in an old storeroom at the Lisle Retreat Center in New York and were brought to the Congregational Library late in 1979.

Sub-group A. State/Conference-Level Organizations

Series I. New York Conference of the United Church of Christ

Series Note: Few of the official records of the Conference or its lineal predecessors are contained in the present record group; what little survives is reportedly held at New York Conference headquarters in Syracuse. A helpful summary of the official acts and programs of the Conference can be obtained, however, by consulting the published annual reports (1834-present) of the organization, copies of which are on file in the Congregational Library.

Series V. Women's Fellowship

Series Note: This organization had its beginnings in the Women's Home Missionary Union founded in 1882. For several years the work of the Union ran parallel with that of a smaller group, the New York Branch of the Women's Board of Missions. The two organizations merged in 1927, taking the name Society of Congregational Church Women. Five years later the name altered to the Fellowship of Congregational Christian Women of the State of New York, popularly the Women's Fellowship. The denominational merger of 1957 saw the denominational part of the name changed, but popularly it remains the Women's Fellowship.
