Abstract:

Collection was donated by the authors, probably in the 1970s. Records document the couple's work in India as Missionaries with the ABCFM and then later when Loy Long was Personnel Secretary for the United Church Board for World Ministries.

Acquisition Information:

Donated by Mr. and Mrs. Long, estimated in the 1970s. Processed 2010.

Biographical Information:

Obituary notice from United Church of Christ's Whole Earth Newsletter

Loy L. Long, former missionary in India (1931-1945, 1949-1956) and staff member ABCFM and UCBWM (1945-1948, 1956-1968) died April 20, 1979 in Newton, Massachusetts at the age of 76.

Mr. Long was a social and industrial welfare worker in Ahmednagar. He organized the Probation and After-Care Association and served for two years as secretary. Mr. and Mrs. Long started the sisal fibre industry which has given regular and seasonal employment to hundreds in the area. They returned to the United States and Mr. Long served as Candidate Secretary with the ABCFM in Boston. Mr. Long was director of the Nagpada Neighborhood House in Bombay when he returned to India. The Longs left India in 1956 and Mr. Long served as Personnel Secretary for the ABCRM and UCBWM until his retirement.

Surviving is his wife, Edna (Wellesley, MA), two daughters, Joan Holmes (Westmoreland, NH) and Carol Steele (Concord, MA) and a son, Delmar (Rock Hill, SC). [All specific addresses redacted]
