Content Description

The Bay State Congregational Women's Fellowship records document the history and activities of the organization including its constitution, bylaws and dissolution from 1963 to 2001. Includes governance and financial records, membership, local outreach, events, general correspondence and international missions (India and other countries). The group's newsletter – Bits and Pieces, 1976-1999 – served as the means of communication among women's groups from different Congregational churches, where they shared information about events, news, articles, stories, ideas, recipes and poems.
